TAKE NOTE

The Salvation Army, Tawa Corps

Te Ope Whakaora

Morning Family,

Reflecting on Rhys's message of the Acts church and how it is as relevant today for us as it was for the disciples. We are first generation believers when it comes to getting to know our heavenly father and seeing His signs and wonders.

What a challenge it is to pursue the Kingdom more to see God move amongst our day to day lives.

Alongside this is encouraging each other to dig deeper in our walks.

Please continue to keep Heather in your prayers as she is recovering from Surgery.

We welcome back Nathan, Jess, Elisha, Summer, Josiah, Azariah and Judah this week.

Blessings

Sarah

IMPORTANT NOTICES ...

SELF DENIAL APPEAL 2021

18th July to 22nd August

This years theme is ...

Transform a life –

Transform the future ...

Ka whakarerekē i te ora,

Ka whakarerekē ā muri ake

Paul the Apostle reminds us in Romans 12:2 that we should “be transformed by the renovation of our mind” (AENT) – actively engaging in our own transformation and being effective in bringing transformation to others.

We have also offered an opportunity through <https://justgifts.org.nz/> to donate $20 to purchase additional sanitiser. Happy to say we now have enough funds to purchase another 1,000 bottles of sanitiser, and there is still time if you want to add a contribution.

♡ School Supplies for Fiji

Here at Central Division, we are aware of how Fiji's current situation is affecting their children, youth and parents. Due to COVID restrictions, children and youth in Fiji are unable to attend school, and have very little resources available for home learning. This includes many children having no access to the internet or devices at home. Because of this, children are bored and parents are struggling to keep them engaged and learning at home.

For this reason we will be collecting educational supplies, books, activity packs, colouring pens, educational games etc. for children aged 3 to 18 years which will be sent to Fiji to be distributed by The Salvation Army.

This is a collection of new items only - our intention is to bless them with our best! Please have all items to your Corps or Centre by Sunday 8th August 2021.
